

Completing her GCE advanced level with an A in Fine Art, Sakina Ali (born on August 19th 1994 in Karachi, Pakistan) graduated from Indus Valley School of Arts with a GPA of 3.75 and a distinction in thesis along with being the winner of the "Zahoor-ul-Akhlaq" award for the best drawing portfolio in 2017. She was inducted on to the Honors and Deans list during her thesis year. She has been offered to put up her work in three exhibitions. Her previous exhibition was displayed at the Full Circle Art Gallery in April 2018. She has secured a position within the permanent collection of Canvas Art Gallery with one of her pieces and has been commissioned multiple times to create artwork for mainstream clients like Karachi Port Trust and Habib Bank Limited. She also interned at Nelson Paints and painted two murals for their head office interior.