

Short Bio:

Sanaa Khalid Shamsi is a CG generalist as well as a Co-founder / CEO at Un'th Animation Studios, boasting an experience of almost a decade working with projects varying complexities. He is based in Karachi and graduated from Indus Valley School with a degree in Fine Arts majoring in Painting and did his minor in Printmaking and Photography. Sanaans's father has always been a major influence in his life and he was inspired by his profession as a Drama director when he worked in PTV during the golden era. Being surrounded by an artistic environment he was always fascinated by staging and visualizing of scenes through scripts and the depiction of it always enticed him to no end. His muse is clearly reflected in his work as a painter. He works with newspaper articles with a certain methodology to stage, fictionalize and decontextualize the text into a visual depiction.